Inside the Swiss Design Mindset

In March, HKDC led a cross-disciplinary delegation to Switzerland comprising our strategic partners, to strengthen collaboration ahead of BODW 2026. Through visits to over 20 design studios, industry leaders, and research institutions across Switzerland, the delegation experienced the nation's distinctive design culture—one rooted in precision, research excellence, and sustainability.

These learnings will directly shape the upcoming BODW 2026 programme, returning 18–20 November with Swiss creativity at its core.

Enoch Hui's Interior Worlds

Why a trained architect turned to interior design to fulfill his creative impulse?

Hong Kong designer Enoch Hui reshapes interior spaces by embracing context, curiosity and constraint. From reimagined café counters to interiors inspired by torii gates and sea breeze in Santorini, Hui's practice is rooted in his philosophy RARE — redefinition, adaptation, representation and elimination.

Read more on bodw+ to discover how Enoch Hui breaks conventions and designs with purpose.
